Who Are The Knights of Columbus

The world's largest Catholic, family & fraternal men's organization established in 1882 whose mission is to provide aid and comfort for the families of deceased members through a network of 16,000+ local councils in 14 countries representing 1.85 million members.

Ranked #647 in Fortune's list of top 1000 largest companies, the Knights provide financial, insurance, annuity and long-term care services for members and their families. As a fraternal benefit organization, net proceeds are directed toward charitable endeavors (instead of corporate taxes), which allowed the Knights and its members to contribute $170 million in direct dollars in 2012, supported by 67 million man-hours of direct effort of our members.
